

Please continue to adhere to the "Do Not Call List" rule. The number of calls ALL times of the day is extremely disturbing and disrupting to a person's normal routine of family life. Since the rule has been in place, it's has been very 'peaceful' in our household. It's no longer annoying to answer the phone.